Shakopee, MN -- Sunday night belonged to Canterbury Park's leading trainer Ed Ross Hardy as he swept both quarter horse stakes races. Stolis Kool Chick maintained her perfect race record with a 1 1/4 length win in the $32,675 North Central Quarter Horse Racing Association Futurity. First Class Smarty won the $22,250 Bob Morehouse Memorial/Cash Caravan Stakes.

The 2-year-old Oklahoma bred filly Stolis Kool Chick is now four for four with career earnings of $45,763. Leading rider Ry Eikleberry rode for owner LMR Racing. Final time of the 350 yard race was 17.674 seconds. Stolis Kool Chick paid $5.60 to win.

"I love this filly," Eikleberry said. "She's about as classy as they come. She is the real deal."

First Class Smarty broke sharply under jockey Tad Leggett and held off a late charge from stablemate Stone Cold Roller to win the 400 yard Morehouse/Cash Caravan by a neck in 19.996 seconds. The 5-year-old Minnesota bred, owned by Rodney Von Ohlen of Alpha, MN, has won six of ten career starts at Canterbury. He paid $5.00 to win.
