Shakopee, MN – The Fort Dodge Starter Allowance Challenge kicked off the eleventh annual Claiming Crown Saturday at Canterbury Park. Eyesa High, owned by Caroline Sanders and Sammy Dunlap of Henryetta, OK won the $18,450 stakes race. The 4-year-old quarter horse gelding, trained by Gregg Sanders, completed the 350-yards in 17.784 seconds under jockey Jerry Winters to win by one-half length.

"He's a nice horse. He was automatic, I didn't really have to do anything but hang on," Winters said.

Eyesa High broke sharply from the gate and held off a strong charge by Niketti to win. He paid $7.80, $5.00 and $3.80. Niketti closed with a rush, but fell just short and returned $9.00 and $5.60. Ls Stone Cookie paid $6.40 to show.

Eyesa High now qualifies to run in the $75,000 Fort Dodge Allowance Championship on October 31st at Los Alamitos Race Track in Los Angeles, CA.
